

Q1:

What is your biggest challenge in moving forward sustainable solutions that could be addressed with capacity building support?

What type of capacity building support would be most effective in helping to overcome this challenge?

Q2:

- What type of capacity building support would be most practical in moving your community into the implementation stage related to sustainability?
- What is the least effective type of capacity building support that you've accessed, and why?

